A grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of the Collective Agreement.

11.02 Settling of Grievance

An earnest effort shall be made to settle grievances fairly and promptly in the following manner:

Step 1

An Employee who believes that they have a problem arising out of the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement shall first discuss the matter with their immediate Supervisor within ten (10) days of the date they first became aware of, or reasonably should have become aware of, the occurrence. The Employee shall have the right to be accompanied by a representative of the Union while discussing the matter with the immediate Supervisor. A sincere attempt shall be made by both Parties through discussion to resolve the issue at this level.

The immediate Supervisor shall advise the Employee of the decision in writing within ten (10) working days of the date when the matter was first discussed. In the event that it is not resolved satisfactorily within ten (10) days of its being discussed with the immediate Supervisor, it may be advanced in accordance with the following steps.

Step 2

Failing satisfactory settlement being reached in Step 1, the grievance shall, within ten (10) working days of receiving the reply under Step 1, be submitted by the Union in writing to the Grievor's Department head with a copy to Human Resources. The Employer shall convene a grievance meeting within ten (10) working days of receipt of the written grievance. The Employer shall render a written decision to the Union within ten (10) working days of the meeting.

Step 3

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2, the Parties may, within ten (10) working days of receiving the reply under Step 2, mutually agree to utilize the Joint Alternate Resolution Dispute Process (JARDP) prior to referring the matter to arbitration.

- (a) Prior to a matter being referred to arbitration, the Parties may agree to refer the matter to a JADRP. Reference of a matter to a JADRP is voluntary and must be agreed to by both Parties.
- (b) The purpose of the JADRP is to have an open, non-binding discussion in an attempt to reach a resolution.
- (c) Discussions and proposed resolutions are made on a without prejudice basis and are for the purpose of attempting to achieve a settlement.

- (d) Any and all information or documents shared during, or in preparation to the JADRP are considered privileged and cannot be used in any further proceedings without proper introduction as evidence.
- (e) Both Parties shall put forward the names of an individual from their organization who agrees to hear the disputes.
- (f) The JADRP will make recommendations to resolve the issue. Recommendations can take any form the Parties feel are appropriate. Recommendations are non-binding on the Parties and are considered privileged and may not be used for any other purpose.

Step 4

Failing a satisfactory settlement being reached in Step 2 or 3 as applicable, the Union may refer the dispute to arbitration within twenty (20) working days of receipt of the decision at Step 2 or failure to reach a resolution at Step 3 in accordance with the referral to arbitration clause.

11.03 Group/Policy Grievance

Where a dispute involving a question of general application or interpretation occurs, or where a group of Employees or the Union has a grievance, Step 1 of this Article may be by-passed.

The time limit for group and policy grievances is twenty (20) working days from the occurrence of the act causing the grievance, or from the time that the Union could reasonably have become aware that a violation of the agreement had occurred.

11.04 Facilities for Grievances

The Employer shall also supply the necessary facilities for the grievance meetings.

11.05 Failure to Act Within Time Limits

It is agreed by the Parties that any difference of opinion relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Collective Agreement which cannot be settled after exhausting the Grievance Procedure shall be settled by arbitration. A Notice of Intent to arbitrate shall be forwarded to the other and such notice shall contain the name of the Union's nominee to the Arbitration Board. Within seven (7) working days from the receipt of the Notice of Intent to Arbitrate, the other Party must in turn name their nominee. A third person to act as Chairman shall be appointed by the respective nominees. Should either Party fail to name their nominee within seven (7) working days or should the nominees fail to appoint a Chairman within seven (7) working days from the date of their appointment, either Party or their nominee may request the Director of Mediation Services to make the appropriate appointment pursuant to the Labour Relations Act.

11.08 Expenses of the Board

Each Party shall pay:

- (a) The fees and expenses of their nominee.
- (b) One-half (1/2) of the fees and expenses of the Chairperson.

The decision of the majority shall be the decision of the Board. The decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final, binding and enforceable on all Parties. The Board of Arbitration shall not have the power to change this agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions or make any decision contrary to the provisions of this Collective Agreement. However, the Board shall have the power to modify penalties or dispose of a grievance by any arrangement which it deems just and equitable.

11.10 Amending of Time Limits

The time limits fixed in both the grievance and arbitration procedure may be extended by consent of the Parties in writing.

11.11 Single Arbitrator

The Employer and the Union agree that by mutual written agreement of the Parties, a Sole Arbitrator may be substituted for a Board of Arbitration. The appointment and jurisdiction of the Arbitrator shall conform to the provisions of this Article. Each Party shall pay one-half (1/2) of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator and any costs of the place of hearing of such arbitration if and when the necessity arises.

ARTICLE 12: DISCIPLINE. DISMISSAL AND RESIGNATION

- (b) Copies of all disciplinary notices shall be forwarded to the Union.
 - (c) An Employee shall have the right to have a Shop Steward or Local Union Officer present at the disciplinary meeting with the Employer.
 - (d) None of the provisions of this Article shall prevent immediate suspension or dismissal for just cause, subject to the grievance procedure.
- 12.04 (a) Employees shall have access to review their personnel file by request made in writing at least one (1) working day in advance once each year or when the Employee has filed a grievance. The Employee may request that a representative of the Union be present when their file is reviewed.
- (b) An Employee shall be given a copy of the contents of their personnel file upon request not more frequently than once in a calendar year; or when the Employee has filed a grievance, provided that they first pay to the Employer a fee, to cover the cost of copying, which fee shall be established by the Employer.
- 12.05 Any notice of discipline placed on an Employee's file shall be removed after a period of eighteen (18) months of worked time exclusive of leaves of absences in excess of thirty (30) days, provided that:
- (a) no further disciplinary action has been taken during that eighteen (18) month period; or
 - (b) the disciplinary action is not the subject of an unresolved grievance.
- 12.06 The Employer shall whenever possible and appropriate provide the Employee advance notice of not less than twenty-four (24) hours of any disciplinary meeting.
- 12.07 An Employee required by the Employer to attend a disciplinary or investigation meeting shall be paid at the Basic Rate of Pay for time spent in attendance at that meeting.

- 12.08 (a) Where an allegation (from an internal or external source) regarding the performance or conduct of an Employee is received or comes to the attention of the Employer or any other formal meeting request, the Employee will be advised of the allegation and/or the specifics of the incident giving rise to the allegation or the particulars of the meeting required. The Employee will be provided with notification of the allegation within ten (10) working days from the date the allegation is made known to the Employer.
- (b) For clarity, the ten (10) working days is signaling the intention of the Employer, not the timeline to begin or conclude the process.

ARTICLE 13: SENIORITY

13.01 Seniority Defined

Seniority is defined as the length of service in the bargaining unit and shall include service with the Employer, or its immediate predecessors, prior to the certification or recognition of the Union. Seniority shall be used in determining preference or priority for promotion, transfer, demotion, layoff, permanent reduction of the workforce, and recall, as set out in other provisions of this agreement. Seniority shall operate on a bargaining-unit-wide basis.

13.02 Seniority List

The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the current classification and the date upon which each Employee's service commenced.

If the seniority date of two (2) or more Employees is the same, the Employee with the lower Employee number shall have more seniority.

An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union and posted on all bulletin boards in January of each year.

13.03 Seniority for Newly Hired Employees

After completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be effective from the original date of employment.

13.04 An Employee shall only lose their seniority:

- (a) When their employment in the bargaining unit is terminated by either the Employer or the Employee.

- 14.02 Applications for vacancies, or promotions, shall be made in writing, in a manner the Employer may designate on the notice of vacancy.
- 14.03 In making appointments to vacancies or promotions, the determining factors shall be qualifications, skill, knowledge, experience, performance and other relevant attributes applicable to the position. Where these factors are considered relatively equal, preference will be given to the senior Regular Employee from those applicants who are considered to be relatively equal.
- 14.04 The foregoing provisions shall be waived when placement of an Employee in a job within the bargaining unit is affected to accommodate a request by the Workers' Compensation Board or the underwriters of the Long-Term Disability Plan for return to work.
- 14.05 A new Employee shall serve a probationary period of one thousand and seven point five (1007.5) hours worked, exclusive of overtime hours worked, for each period of continuous employment. The probationary period may be extended for a period up to an additional five hundred and three (503) hours worked, exclusive of overtime hours worked.
- During the probationary period the Employee may be terminated for any reason without:
- (a) notice; and
 - (b) pay, except as may be required by the provisions of the Alberta Employment Standards Code, and shall not have recourse to the Grievance Procedure set out in this Collective Agreement or the Code, with respect to such termination.
- 14.06 All promotions shall be on a trial basis. The promoted Employee shall be given a trial period of five hundred and three point seven five (503.75) hours worked, exclusive of overtime hours worked, in which to demonstrate their ability to perform the duties of the position satisfactorily. The trial period may be extended by an additional five hundred and three point seven five (503.75) hours worked.
- 14.07 Extensions to the trial period and reasons for the extensions will be communicated in writing to the Employee with a copy to the union.
- 14.08 A promoted Employee who is absent for any reason on a scheduled work day shall have their trial period extended by the number of working days absent.
- 14.09 If, in the opinion of the Employer, the Employee fails to succeed during the trial period, they shall be reinstated in their former position at their former rate of pay. If such is not possible, the Employee shall be placed in another suitable position

14.10 Transfers and Seniority Outside Bargaining Unit

No Employee shall be transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit without their written consent. An Employee who consents in writing to be transferred and/or promoted to a position outside of the bargaining unit shall not accumulate seniority within the bargaining unit during such transfer and/or promotion. In the event that the Employee is returned by the Employer to a position in the bargaining unit within twelve (12) calendar months of the transfer and/or promotion, the Employee shall be credited with the seniority held immediately prior to the transfer and/or promotion and shall resume accumulation from the date of their return to the bargaining unit. An Employee not returned to the bargaining unit within twelve (12) calendar months from the transfer and/or promotion shall forfeit all bargaining unit seniority. In the event an Employee transferred and/or promoted out of the bargaining unit is returned to the bargaining unit within a period of six (6) calendar months from the start date of the transfer and/or promotion, they shall accumulate seniority during the period of time outside the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 15: LAYOFFS AND RECALLS

15.01 Definition of Layoff

A layoff shall be defined as a permanent reduction in the full time equivalency (FTE) as communicated to the Employee at the time of hire, or subsequent appointment or promotion.

15.02 Role of Seniority in Layoffs

In the event of a layoff, Employee(s) shall be laid off in the reverse order of their seniority within the site where the layoff(s) is to occur. An Employee in receipt of layoff notice may bump the Employee with the least seniority, providing the Employee exercising the right is qualified to perform the work.

15.03 Advance Notice of Layoff

Unless legislation is more favorable to the Employees, the Employer shall notify the Union and Employees who are to be laid off thirty (30) calendar days prior to the effective date of layoff. If the Employee has not had the opportunity to work the days as provided in this article, they shall be paid for the days for which work was not made available.

(a) An Employee on lay off shall have opportunity of recall from a layoff to an available opening, in order of seniority, provided they have the ability and qualifications to perform the work, and provided such opening is first posted under the internal job posting procedure, and has not been filled.

(b) No new Employees shall be hired until all those laid off have been given an opportunity to return to work and have failed to do so, in accordance with the loss of seniority provision, or have been found unable to perform the work available.

- (c) The method of recall shall be by telephone or, if such is not possible, by registered letter sent to the Employee's last known place of residence. The Employee so notified will return on the date specified or other mutually agreed date. Failure to report on the date specified or mutually agreed date shall constitute a termination of employment by the Employee.
- (d) Employees on lay off or notice of lay off shall be given preference for temporary vacancies, which are expected to exceed twenty (20) days of work. An Employee who has been recalled to such temporary vacancy shall not be required to accept such recall and may instead remain on lay off. This provision supersedes the job posting provision.

15.04 Recall rights shall be forfeited if:

- (a) an Employee refuses recall to a position with an equivalent FTE from which the Employee was laid off; or
- (b) the Employee accepts a recall and returns to an equivalent position; or
- (c) the Employee applies on a posted position and is successful in accordance with Promotions and Transfers article; or
- (d) three hundred and sixty-five (365) calendar days from the date of the initial layoff have expired.

15.05 Grievance on Layoff and Recalls

The Parties shall discuss the appropriate step in grievance procedure to commence a layoff grievance.

ARTICLE 16: HOURS OF WORK

- 16.01 (a) Regular hours of work for the Full-time Employees exclusive of meal periods shall be:
