

Before and After an Expected Death in the Home Information for Families of Home Care Patients in a Private Home or Seniors' Lodge booklet - Ordering Instructions

Palliative and End of Life Care

The Before and After an Expected Death in the Home – Information for Families of Home Care Patients in a Private Home or Seniors' Lodge booklet is to be given to families by Home Care healthcare providers as part of conversations with patients and their families around preparing for an expected death at home.

This booklet supports Home Care healthcare providers in following the provincial Patient's Death in the Home Setting Guideline (<https://www.albertahealthservices.ca/info/Page15828.aspx>).

It includes information for families on preparing for an expected death at home (private home or seniors' lodge), what to expect as a person is dying, steps to take after an expected death at home, and additional information and resources.
